The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

The Troubled Party

Local Republicans are beginning to stir as the enormity of the past few months' political events begins to draw party criticism.

But all is not lost! If GOP morale has been lowered by transgression, the Democrat hierarchy has been injured by the lack of leadership and action.

And if the Bobby Baker activity had been given the intense investigation during the Johnson administration as the Watergate affair occasioned, it would have produced about the same results, but with different players.

But it is about Republicans locally that this notion is directed.

Let's start with The Pardon. That should have ended the nearly paranoid attacks on former President Nixon—but it hasn't. And it won't stop for a long time. It is a matter that Republicans will have to live with through the 1976 elections.

Then there was the failure of the U.S. National Bank organization. C. Arnholt Smith, chairman of the Board of the bank and major stockholder of associated local firms, was the area's Republican leader. He helped finance many local Republican programs and was a great financial aid to President Nixon and Party at the national level.

It is not likely that he will be able to give financial aid nor guidance to Republicans in the foreseeable future.

There is Adm. Les Gehres, chairman of the County Republican Central Committee who has ruled the Republican roost for many years with an iron hand. With disarray coming to the local leadership, Gehres now stands out as a stodgy boss who has held down, rather than build up a viable young leadership capable of helping the Party over rough periods. Any coloration that has come to Smith, must, in a Party sense, be translated to Gehres. Smith was the financial spring from which funds often came. And it was Gehres through whom some of these funds were frequently directed.

Some of the problems that have befallen Smith as a banker have become a Party shadow over Gehres.

With a few exceptions there appears to be little immediate hope for a new crop of Republican candidates here. Even our senior Congressman, Bob Wilson, is in danger of being unseated by, of all people, a tender Democrat lass, Colleen O'Connor, in her first race.

To show how vital is the need for young ideas brought forth by young people is the recent $125-a-plate dinner given by Republican supporters at a Mission Valley hotel, O'Connor gave a $125-a-plate beans and hot dogs dinner in a vacant area across the road.

A unique idea? No. But it showed the imagination needed to win elections. There were more people talking about the $125 deal than the $125 one.

And more recently there was the tragic charge regarding Dr. Gaylord Parkinson who was picked up with a group of people in a May Store restroom against whom moral charges were laid. Dr. Parkinson is yet to be arraigned—and like Nixon, should not be adjudged guilty until his day in court.

But Parkinson was a Republican leader. He led at the local and state level. He hosted scores of receptions for San Diego and California candidates for office. Like Smith, he could be depended upon to give financial help when needed. But the allegation has made Parkinson less effective as a leader.

Interestingly, a group of East County Republicans gathered last week to see if the County GOP pieces could be picked up and another bandwagon assembled.

It can.

But they've got to dump Les Gehres and others who hold back young, capable potential political personalities.

One suggestion that came from the Republican meeting seems to make sense. It calls for funding a five-year plan of developing new Republican personalities. Also explored was a study of fund-raising over a long-range period so that Republican candidates could spend more time campaigning for office and less time trying to finance races.

At least one voice expressed it sensibly. "If any new Republican candidate is seated this fall we should view it as just so much gravy then use what we have as a springboard for revitalizing the County organization."

That's good advice for any group in trouble!

Big Bear Robbed; 2 Suspects Sought

Two armed robbers used pistols to force cashiers at the Big Bear Market, Campo and Broadway, to empty contents of their cash registers.

Forced to drop $2,000 to $4,000 in a brown paper bag about 6 p.m. Friday.

Allen Charles McDonald and Darlene Lillian Tuylis were the victims.

Witnesses described the robbers as one, a Negro male to John Doroshuk Jr. for a 19- about 28, 6-2, 200 pounds with unit apartment complex at an Afro. The other a Mexican Broadway and Imperial on 3 male, about 28, neatly dressed, 5-10, about 200 pounds.

L.G. Housewives Aid Capture Of Daylight Burglary Suspects

The combined efforts of the sheriffs department and some neighbors resolved a Lemon Grove burglary like instantly last week.

It started when Jane Estelle Lauer, of 2328 Loma dr., standing at her kitchen window, saw two young Negro males on the premises of her absent neighbor across the street—the home of the Stephen Earl Kerner's at 2311 Loma dr.

Nearby was an auto with its hood up and another young male tinkering with the engine.

It didn't look right.

She alerted her neighbor, Judy Susanne Gloyer, of 2320 Loma dr.

Mrs. Gloyer went to the Kerner house to investigate. Mrs. Lauer approached the waiting car. "Do you need help?" she asked.

"No, just some trouble with the battery cable," was the response.

About then the driver saw Mrs. Gloyer approaching the Kerner property. He gave three quick toots on the car's horn and two suspects came running out of the house. Since she was just entering the gate and blocking the exit, the suspects had to jump a four-foot fence.

Driver Takes Off

Meanwhile, the driver jumped into his car and drove down the street while the other suspects raced to catch him.

A few minutes later Mrs. Lauer had notified the Lemon Grove office of the Sheriff. Minutes later—at about 10:30—an officer had the details and put the information on the air, together with the car's license number which Mrs. Lauer had thoughtfully obtained.

At 10:46, a unit of the sheriff's department observed a vehicle with a matching license number at 27th and J streets in East San Diego. The occupants resembled the description of the suspects. An examination of the contents in their pockets produced various pieces of jewelry later identified as that belonging to the Kerners.

Massage Parlor Not so Friendly

The friendly corner massage parlor isn't as friendly as it used to be. That's what a San Diego man in need of massagistic services discovered.

Sandra Kay Thompson, 25, a masseuse at Valley Massage II, at 8614 Troy st., Spring Valley, said that the man came into the establishment about 3 a.m. Saturday and agreed to buy $15 worth of massage for which he paid.

Upon completion he complained of being dissatisfied and demanded his money back. He threatened Ms. Thompson with bodily harm if she refused. Finally, in fear, she said, she refunded the money and called police.

They located a man of his description at a nearby Jack-in-the-Box and arrested him when Ms. Thompson identified him as the non-paying client.

He is to be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court on a charge of threatening bodily harm.

School Board OK's Senior Meals Again

The Lemon Grove School District board of trustees approved supplying meals and transportation for senior citizens for another school year.

But they built into the agreement the right to raise prices in keeping with the inflationary spiral.

Meals are served at the L.G. Youth Center for $1.35. Transportation is $1 a mile. The project costs the district nothing Superintendent Bob Sutton reported.

Trustee Warren Buckner said he is a nominee as delegate for the California School Boards Assn. He is one of eight nominees in San Diego County. Five will be chosen.

The board also approved, for the third year, the Lemon Grove Lions Club project of screening kindergarten youngsters for eye vision problems. Parents are charged $1 for the service. About one out of six youngsters are found to have defective vision in varying degrees.

'Project Concern' Doctor Returns to Private Practice

Dr. James W. Turpin is returning to private practice.

He served 13 years of medical care for Project Concern, a private international medical organization he founded in 1961.

From time to time Dr. Turpin, whose residence is Coronado, returned to the United States to discuss the problems of Project Concern with the people who supported the project.

Dr. Turpin became known as "Dr. Jim" to thousands in Hong Kong, South Viet Nam, Mexico and the hills of Appalachia.

He cited his family's financial needs as the principal cause of his decision to return home to join a private medical clinic in Atlanta. The Turpins have a son in medical school and two others who will soon go to college.

"I hope and plan to return to full-time involvement as soon as I can," Dr. Turpin said. "Project Concern is a strong, going organization, now supported by many, capable of continuing to expand to meet human needs. The medical care Project Concern is uniquely qualified to provide must continue for those who need our help."

Volunteered

Dr. Turpin gave up a thriving practice to found Project Concern after serving as a volunteer part-time physician in the canyon slums of Tijuana. He opened Project Concern's first program in 1962 in Hong Kong to provide medical care for destitute refugees crowding in from Red China. In 1963 a floating clinic was opened in Hong Kong harbor for the thousands living on sampans, small crowded boats without sanitation or plumbing.

He moved on to South Vietnam in 1964 to open Project Concern's 42-bed hospital at DaMpaio in the Central Highlands, where the peaceful Montagnards were innocent victims of the war raging around them. A program training the primitive tribesmen as paramedical workers proved successful enough to establish a network of native village and hospital medical assistants in the surrounding area. The program has continued at DaMpaio and at Lien Hiep where a second, larger hospital was opened in 1966, and a similar training program is now underway in Keren, Ethiopia.

He was a member of Service Employees International Union and International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Local 683.

He is survived by his wife, Irma, two sons: David and Robert and two sisters in Ohio. Recitation of the Rosary was Tuesday at Conrad Mortuary Chapel. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery.

Funded by voluntary contributions, Project Concern has expanded its medical and dental aid program to seven countries from its international headquarters in San Diego. The organization maintains 24 hospitals and clinics on the Navajo reservation and distressed Appalachia communities, in Ethiopia, Indonesia, Guatemala and Mexico, as well as Vietnam and Hong Kong. At the time of his resignation, Dr. Turpin was serving as medical director in Appalachia, where he was born in 1928.

Letter to the Editor

Sept. 20, 1974

Dear Editor:

Having discovered the power of the press on many previous occasions, I thought I would write about a new problem and maybe someone could tell me whom to contact to have something done about it.

Lemon Grove bus riders know that the Lemon Grove bus was discontinued as of Sept. 15th. I am one of the riders. We were not given any notice. When the bus drivers were questioned about a rumor they evaded with words that they knew there was going to be a change, but didn't know what.

Four days before the ending of the bus, notices appeared on the bus stops (many immediately removed by boys and girls) that the stop would be discontinued as of Sept. 15. A small sign underneath mentioned where to go for a bus after that. Most of the riders of that bus live in the middle area between these bus stops. I am a mile from each one. That means that they and I can not even get to downtown Lemon Grove without walking a mile for a bus. I heard many say they didn't know how they were going to get their shopping done now.

On the last trip I asked a driver why had the bus been taken off. Two reasons were given. 1. Whoever controls such things in LG was not interested in buses. 2. Not enough people rode the bus. The latter might have been true at times before the energy crisis, but after it, most buses had standing room most of the way to Lemon Grove.

I asked everyone on the bus those last days to please write the transit company, but since they didn't know me, I doubt if they did.

One thing I'd hate to believe is that LG did not care about buses and the people who depended on them. That would be terrible.

Mrs. G. C. (Candy) Walker 1632 Watwood, L.G.

Dear Mrs. Walker:

Right on!

We mentioned the apparent disinterest of the executives of Transit back on August 22 on page 1. We made certain the firm got a copy. We mailed it personally.

Later, we made another demand of Walter Moores, who lists himself as public relations director of San Diego Transit. We wanted to know what changes were being invoked on riders in Lemon

This Week's RECIPE

A Boost for Better Breakfasts

It's back to school days . . . work days . . . days that should begin with a nourishing breakfast. The first meal of the day should provide about 25 per cent of the daily food intake, enough to carry you through to noontime.

A fitting breakfast food is eggs: little compact containers of high-quality protein, vitamins and minerals. And, an "eggcellent" way to serve them is Western-Style eggs. Condensed cream of mushroom soup turns eggs into a tempting recipe no sleepyhead can resist. Whole kernel corn and green pepper strips are eye-opening additions. A sunny sprinkling of Cheddar cheese is the crowning glory.

Western-style Eggs is the "Better Breakfast Booster" (and not a bad booster for brunch or lunch, either!).

Western-Style Eggs
 1/2 cup green pepper strips
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1 can (10 3/4 oz.) Condensed Cream of Mushroom Soup
 8 eggs, slightly beaten
 1/2 cup cooked whole kernel corn
 1/2 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
 Shredded cheddar cheese
 In 10-inch skillet, cook green pepper in butter until tender. In bowl, stir soup until smooth; gradually blend in eggs, corn, and hot pepper sauce. Pour into skillet. Cook over low heat; do not stir. As mixture begins to set around edges, gently lift cooked portions with wide turner so that thin, uncooked portion can flow to the bottom. Continue gently lifting cooked portions until eggs are completely set, but still moist (about 8 minutes). Garnish with cheese. Makes 4 servings.

Can Steamed-up Chargers Sidetrack Super Bowl Dolphins?

The Miami Dolphins return to San Diego Sunday.

Acclaimed as the best team in pro football history after back-to-back Super Bowl triumphs, the dynamite Dolphins of Coach Don Shula are the reward for the San Diego Chargers after Coach Tommy Prothro's team scored a major upset over the Cincinnati Bengals last Sunday.

The Chargers (1-1) and Dolphins (1-1) battle at San Diego Stadium in the National Football League home opener for San Diego. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

The game will be broadcast by Andy Musser and Dick Van Raaphorst on KSDO (1130) and the Charger network. Ross Porter and Willie Davis announce the NBC telecast to Miami. There is no San Diego television.

In 1966, a 19-yard interception return by Kenny Graham, and general admission tickets a 47-yard option pass from Keith Lincoln to Lance Alworth and two extra points by Dick Van Raaphorst and the Chargers leaped ahead, 14-0, after only 5:26 of the first quarter on the unusually sultry night of Aug. 6, 1966 at San Diego's old Balboa Stadium.

The subsequent 38-10 San Diego victory was no surprise considering that the opposition for the strong Chargers was the new expansion team in the American Football League, the one co-owned by comedian Danny Thomas. That team had just leap-frogged across the country in an old plane to play its first-ever game.

From such a humble beginning sprang the monster Miami Dolphins. There were 20,256 reserved seats and 10,000 general admission tickets to be sold as of Monday. They are available at Stadium Gate E and Ticketron outlets.

Charger offensive tackle and co-captain Russ Washington will be honored before Sunday's game. He will be awarded the San Diego Union-Tribune "player of the year" statue trophy for 1973 and receive a $1,000 check from the newspapers.

Mickey Mouse will lead the Grossmont High School band and other Disneyland characters will cavort in a pre-game salute to the San Diego County kickoff of the 1974 United Way-Chad community campaign. The Ninth Division Army bagpipes and color guard also will take part. Gloria Loring sings the National Anthem.

The first Pop Warner post game of the year will pair the Chula Vista Titans and Madison Longhorns in a "mity mite" division contest. San Diego leads the series, 4-2, but its last victory was in 1969. The Dolphins won the last game between the teams, 24-10, in Miami in 1972.

Driving 98 yards to the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter, the Chargers upset the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-17, before 55,098 at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati.

It was the first road victory for San Diego since the 10th game of 1972 and broke a 14-game home victory streak for Cincinnati. Quarterback Dan Fouts scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak with 7:35 remaining after extricating the Chargers from a 3rd-and-10 snakepit on their own 2-yard line with an 18-yard pass to Jim Beirne.

Curtain Closes Sunday On Padres

The curtain closes on the 1974 season for the San Diego Padres in the next few days as the Pads put the finishing touches on things by testing California rivals Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The Padres will wrap up their final homestand of the season by hosting the Los Angeles Dodgers for three games, Thursday through Saturday. Starting time on all three contests will be 7:30 p.m. in San Diego Stadium.

San Diego will take two days off following the Dodgers series before closing out the season with two games with the Giants in San Francisco, Tuesday and Wednesday. The season will close with a real rush for the Pads as the Oct. 1 game is slated for 7:30 p.m. with the finale the following afternoon at 12:15 p.m.

"I'd like to close out the season a winner," said Padre manager John McNamara who will be seeing out his first season at the helm. "All the pressure will be on the Dodgers as I don't believe they'll have the pennant wrapped up then, if indeed they do hang on to win it all."

The Padres will be staging back-to-back special events during the final two games of the Dodgers series. The Friday night game will be San Diego Union-Tribune Team Photo Night with all Padre fans receiving a free-full-color team photo of the Padres.

Then, on Saturday the Padres will close out the Fan Appreciation Night with loads of prizes for luck Padre fans. The Padres will be staging back-to-back special events during the final two games of the Dodgers series.

Regular Season Closes Saturday at Cajon Oval

They'll establish the battle-lines at Cajon Speedway for the big one Saturday night.

More than 60 cars are expected to be in the pits to take qualifying runs which begin at 6:30 p.m. A four-car, four-lap trophy dash is set for 8 p.m. followed by four heats, a consolation and an equally challenging 25 lap semi-main event.

Still to be determined is the 1974 champion. Ron Overman's crew has burned the midnight oil to prepare a new engine for his Nova in an all-out attempt to gain a first title. But he only leads runnerup Gary Crossland by 19 points, 2,585 to 2,566.

Although he is mathematically eliminated from the title picture, Jim Hitt will be favored Saturday night. The Lemon Grove garage owner, who won a championship in 1971, thrives on longer races, having won one of the three previous 50-lappers this season.

Others who have won longer features this year are Larry Hageman who also captured last week's feature, and Mark Stahl, who turned the trick June 1.

The close scrambles for main events this year, the many different winners and the tight championship race have been the big reasons that the attendance at the three-eighths of a mile track has soared to 94,074. Cajon seems assured of reaching the 100,000 attendance mark for an eighth season.

Also figuring to make strong showings in the Grand Prix will be Bobby Roland, the young Spring Valley driver who is bidding for rookie of the year honors: Last year's rookie sensation Ron Esau, two-time champions Pat McIntyre and Russ Bullen, Mark Stahl and Larry Aufdengarten.

An Open Competition race, where drivers from San Diego will be challenged by leading performers from the Far West is scheduled for Cajon Speedway, Oct. 5.

El Paso snapped its losing string last week with an impressive 34-7 win over Utah, and the week before extended Pacific before Willard Harrell broke a 44 yard run for a 17-14 Tiger win.

"I guess all of us thought El Paso would be somewhat of a breather," said Aztec coach Claude Gilbert, "but after watching their films I think we're going to be in for a fight. El Paso has a young aggressive team and they just keep coming at you. They had Pacific beaten two weeks ago before Harrell broke for a touchdown and last week they handled Utah easily."

San Diego State evened its record at 1-1 with a 28-25 win over the University of Tampa last week. The Aztecs rolled up 501 yards total offense with 281 through the air and 220 on the ground.

Quarterback Kevin Sneed, who was playing for the injured Craig Penrose, hit 11 of 22 passes for 281 yards and two TD's, rushed for 27 yards on 11 carries and was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Association offensive Player of the Week. Fullback Bill Kramer rushed 17 times for 131 yards, Nate Ferguson caught four passes for 151 yards and a score and Dwight McDonald caught five passes for 105 yards and a TD.

Defensively Rance Olson was the leader with nine tackles, seven assists and a military and retired, $1.50 for fumble recovery. Greg Boyd had seven tackles and six assists, Mike Gilbert had eight tackles and one assist and Bobby Henderson had six tackles and 11 assists.

Aztecs to Try Texas U. Sat. In El Paso

San Diego State U. will get a chance to showcase its football team in a Bowl on Saturday when the Aztecs meet the U. of Texas at El Paso in the Sun Bowl at 7:30 p.m.

For San Diego State the game appeared as an excellent chance to roll up an impressive win over a weak El Paso team which had lost 13 games in a row going into last week. Now, however, the game appears anything but easy and the Aztecs may have a fight on their hands with the Miners as the Sun Bowl Selection Committee looks on.

El Paso has a young aggressive team and they just keep coming at you. They had Pacific beaten two weeks ago before Harrell broke for a touchdown and last week they handled Utah easily."

San Diego State evened its record at 1-1 with a 28-25 win over the University of Tampa last week. The Aztecs rolled up 501 yards total offense with 281 through the air and 220 on the ground.

Quarterback Kevin Sneed, who was playing for the injured Craig Penrose, hit 11 of 22 passes for 281 yards and two TD's, rushed for 27 yards on 11 carries and was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Association offensive Player of the Week. Fullback Bill Kramer rushed 17 times for 131 yards, Nate Ferguson caught four passes for 151 yards and a score and Dwight McDonald caught five passes for 105 yards and a TD.

Defensively Rance Olson was the leader with nine tackles, seven assists and a military and retired, $1.50 for fumble recovery. Greg Boyd had seven tackles and six assists, Mike Gilbert had eight tackles and one assist and Bobby Henderson had six tackles and 11 assists.

El Paso snapped its losing string last week with an impressive 34-7 win over Utah, and the week before extended Pacific before Willard Harrell broke a 44 yard run for a 17-14 Tiger win.

"I guess all of us thought El Paso would be somewhat of a breather," said Aztec coach Claude Gilbert, "but after watching their films I think we're going to be in for a fight. El Paso has a young aggressive team and they just keep coming at you. They had Pacific beaten two weeks ago before Harrell broke for a touchdown and last week they handled Utah easily."

Mike Avans Returns To Try Marco Gerardo

Involved in what was called reigns as state middleweight the "fight of the year" here champion.

Last Week
by promoter-matchmaker Mickey Davies, gutty Phoenix veteran Mike Avans will re- turn to the Coliseum Friday night when he takes on highly regarded Marco Gerardo in the 10 round feature event.

In a companion feature also scheduled for 10 rounds, sensational newcomer Alfredo Medina, a local youngster being groomed for a showdown with Irish Art Hafez, will tangle with ringwise veteran Johnny "Scooter" Meza in a feather-weight battle.

"After 'toying' with San Diego whiz kid Eddie Mazon in his local debut, Avans and Mexican middleweight king Manuel Elizondo, the world's eighth ranked 160 pounder, in June waged one of the most brutal affairs ever witnessed here.

"In all the bouts I've promoted, including championship fights, the Elizondo-Avans clash would have to be rated tops for action," said Davies.

In the end, Mike's 14 fight win string was snapped when he was forced to retire due to severe lacerations in the ninth round. Since that brawl, however, the 27-year old Avans has recovered to look impressive in several recent Arizona outings, where he currently

Funny Cars to Run At Irvine Saturday

IRVINE — Pro Stock kings Bill "Grumpy" Jenkins and Larry Huff join sixteen of this season's outstanding funny car drivers in Saturday evening's $18,000 East vs. West Funny Car Championships at Orange County International Raceway.

The added Pro Stock feature will complement three rounds of "team" funny car competition, with drivers scoring points for individual victories and overall team performance.

The Eastern side enjoys a slim, 4-3 lead in the popular series, which opened in 1967. Team captain Tom "the Mongoose" McEwen hopes to even the score Saturday with a team of top Western racers selected for their OCIR accomplishments over the past twelve months. Contestants include Sush Matsubara (L.A.), Grand American winner Jim Dunn, P.D.A. champ Jake Johnston and Nitro Jam titlist Pat Foster.

The opposing team has Paul "Wrong Way" Radici, "burn-out king" and team captain for the East. Roger Lindamood, Dale Creasy, Ron O'Donnell, Texan Jim "Superman" Nicoll and Twig Ziegler, are also listed.

Each of the contestants makes three competition appearances under Saturday's traditional "round-robin" elimination format.

All Mariners' Games To be Aired Via KOGO

The full 78-game schedule of the World Hockey Assn. San Diego Mariners will be broadcast this year on radio KOGO (60).

All 39 Mariner home games will be broadcast live as will 26 of the 39 road games beginning Oct. 16 when San Diego opens its season at Phoenix. The remaining 13 road games are to be on a delayed basis because of conflict with the A.B.A. San Diego Conquistadors.

The agreement with KOGO marks the ninth straight year the N.B.C. affiliate has handled hockey action locally. KOGO had broadcast games for the now defunct Western League San Diego Gulls since 1966.

Storey Announces

Mariner play-by-play activity will be called by veteran announcer Roy Storey. Storey has previously done the games for the L.A. Kings and California Golden Seals of N.H.L. and W.H.L. San Francisco Seals.

Daily drills will be held at both the San Diego Mira Mesa House of Ice and the San Diego Sports Arena with the 13,700 seat Arena also to be used as the team's home rink during the season.

The Mariners, transplanted from their New Jersey location of a year ago, bring the WHA to San Diego following a summer of uneven progress.

Court Approves

After announcing their move from Jersey in April, the Mariners ran into a San Diego city council that refused to approve the team's ownership. That vote came on July 25 and left the local hockey situation in a state of limbo until a court ruling recently gave the Mariners permission to open their 1974-75 play.

Player personnel director Ron Ingram and player-coach Harry Howell spent the off-season rebuilding a team that was last in the league's Eastern Division in 1973-74. Their efforts have resulted in improvements at almost every position, especially on defense.

Sixteen men who were on last year's squad will vie with 12 acquisitions and a bevy of free agents for spots on the 19-man roster.

The fruits of their labors will be tested almost immediately, with a five-game exhibition schedule set to begin Sunday. The exhibition slate is a prelude to a 78-game season that kicks off with an Oct. 16 visit to Phoenix and an Oct. 19 home opener with Houston.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Well, here we are. Halfpast the last homestand of the year with the Padres anchored, as usual, in the cellar closing out a frustrating campaign with nothing better to show for the season than another lock on last place.

Maybe so. It sure does look that way. There's no way the Padres can keep from losing 100 games this year. They'll have to play like hell to win as many as 60 with the odds on that going pretty high. Tommy the Turk would probably lay that off.

So, the Padres are ending in the basement. What else is new?

Hang on Babe, there's a real surprise in the works. One has happened and the rest is on the way.

As even the slow son of a donkey knows, the Padres drew a million plus folks to the big ball park in Mission Valley this year. And for the most part it wasn't all the attraction of a bunch of stiff going out to get their brains knocked out.

The Padres, thanks to E. J. "Buzze" Bavasi and no other, were a pretty competitive club this early season. Freshman mentor John Francis McNamara was pleased enough with the attack troops and told one and all the Padres would go as far as their pitching could take them.

As everyone knows, the pitching bombed. Some guys couldn't throw on some days and some guys couldn't throw at all. No need to go into all that now, but McNamara and his pitching coach, "Sailor Bill" Posedel, were forced to rebuild the mound corps beginning in early May. Six of the nine hurlers opening the season were dispatched elsewhere by the All-Star Break.

And speaking of breaks, Enzo Hernandez, Bobby Tolan, Darrell Thomas, Nate Colbert, Cito Gaston, Johnny Grubb and Willie McCovey drew a bushel full and all of them were bad. It is testimony to sheer determination that Tolan is back in the lineup after his knee operation in July.

"I never saw anybody work harder reconditioning himself as Bobby did," beams Padre medico H. Paul Bauer. "It was sheer guts and damn hard work."

And to what? A losing team? Hardly. That's not how the Padres look at themselves these days.

"We're building pride," says McNamara. "We go after the Dodgers with everything we have. Not to be spoiled, but to build pride. Something to take into spring training next year."

Aye, there's the silver lining to the dark cloud of '74. You see, the Padres move is coming. And it's up. Not because there is no where else to go, hell it's been like that for the last five years.

This time there's money to do the things that must be done during the months of no income. Out of season improvements. Things like running your own instructional league team this fall in Arizona. Coming up with a full class "A" arrangement in addition to the rookie league. Even claiming a bigger share of a triple "A" franchise so guys who want to work in certain positions will see duty there.

And on the big club, pride. Winning pride. The substance that Willie McCovey and Bobby Tolan bring. The sheer will to win that flows from Glenn Beckert to permeate and infect the spirit of the team.

The 1974 Padres are a salute to Buzze. It's totality out of his own determination and courage that a proper foundation for building a champion of the future was put together this year.

He didn't even have an owner when he acquired such stalwarts as Beckert, McCovey and Tolan. That took guts, but you'll never find anybody in baseball that says Buzze doesn't have guts. He's always been a stand up guy.

And now, this winter, this off season, and with the grace of owner Ray Kroc's fat wallet, Bavasi can operate. And they're getting ready for next year's challenge building pride this late season.

It's rather fitting that the final opposition is the Los Angeles Dodgers. They could be the best team in the game this year. One thing is certain. They're playing one of the best teams of the future.

As they used to say in Brooklyn in years past. "Hey World, wait till next year."

Boatmen: Heed This Warning

SACRAMENTO — The California Department of Navigation and Ocean Development and the U. S. Coast Guard warns owners of certain wooden hull boats to have them inspected for seaworthiness.

The boats, manufactured by the Broadwater Boat Co. of Mayo, have been involved in an unproporionately high number of sinkings attributable to possible failure of hull planking.

It is suggested that owners of wooden 25, 27, 29, and 31 foot Broadwater boats have the hulls of their boats inspected for cracking, bulges, hollows, loose screws, or layers of wood coming apart. Owners of Broadwater boats who detect indications of damage are urged to contact Broadwater boats and the Coast Guard with a description of the damage and the location of the boat or where it may be inspected. Although the present investigation is confined to the Broadwater boats specifically listed, these inspection precautions apply to all wooden boats.

POSSIBLE WINNER — Johnny Johnson, a Spring Valley racer, is regarded as a likely winner at this week's AC-Delco World Championship Off Road Race at Riverside. Three other local racers are scheduled to start.

Johnny Johnson 'Looks Good' For AC-Delco World Race

Baja 1000 winner Johnny Johnson of Spring Valley emerges as one of the favorites to win the dune buggy title in Mickey Thompson's "AC-Delco World Champion" of off-road racing Saturday and Sunday at Riverside International Raceway.

Johnson, 31, will be at the wheel of a Chevrolet-powered Chenoweth Super Sprint buggy, a machine specially designed for the 3.6-mile closed course circuit that will be used in the race.

Known as a car preserver as well as a hard charger, Johnson will be matched against such stars as Parnelli Jones, Bobby Ferro, Fritz Kroyer, Rick Mears, and more than 40 other drivers of single-seat all-out racing dune buggies.

The best indication of his ingenuity in making his race machine last through a long race came in the 1969 mint 400, when Johnson and his wife Linda co-drove to the overall victory topping such names as Jones, Bobby and Al Unser, and Roger Ward.

The course was hot and dusty, and the Nevada silt was filtering into the clutch of the dune buggy they had built in their own back yard. Johnson rigged a straw for Linda to blow water through, into the clutch, to rinse the dust away.

Regularly as they raced across the rough terrain together she would sip from their water jug and blow a little into the straw. The strategy worked in what was later called one of the dustiest off-road races ever held.

The Johnsons took pains to make sure they were scored properly along the route, a detail some of their competitors overlooked.

They carried with them a supply of cold beer and at each checkpoint Linda would pull one out and hand it to an official so that there would be no mistaking the fact that Johnson had been there.

They were scored, all right, and late in the race officials were openly cheering for the eventual winners.

Popular Driver Johnson, who teamed with to edge favored Parnelli Jones, remains one of the most popular drivers in the sport. He has won four other class wins in the Mexican 1000, plus overall titles in the California 400, Firecracker 250, Laguna Salada (twice) and several brego races dating back into the mid 1960's.

They are expected to draw a large, enthusiastic following from the San Diego area, where one of the biggest single contingents of off-roaders is to be found.

Johnson will also be supported from the grandstand by Chevy racing fans who will root for him to show up the Volkswagen-powered dune buggies that normally dominate the dune buggy class.

Overnight camping on the raceway grounds will be permitted starting Friday and is free with a two-day ticket. Tickets continue on sale in advance at Ticketron outlets

Court Reform Urged by Bollman

Mike Bollman, candidate for San Diego County, Bollman said, "information given to me semingly District, has made a indicates that the situation is number of major court reform far worse in other parts of proposals which he said are the State.

Speaking before the La Mesa Optimists meeting at Reuben's Bollman said, "We must begin court reform by directing our courts to place primary emphasis on finding the truth rather than allowing technicalities which all too often block the truth."

Bollman said that court procedures have at certain times become nothing more than technical games between prosecutor and defense attorney, with the result that the public is the loser.

"We must remember that justice delayed is often justice denied and we must therefore protect the rights of both the public and the defendant by having speedy disposition of criminal cases," Bollman said.

Bollman, an attorney, said that some delays are often caused by unnecessarily complicated procedures, dilatory tactics, and over crowded court calendars. "Although the situation is very good here in

Salmagundi Means Arts and Crafts

Salmagundi means "pot pourri" or "a mixture of several things."

In Lemon Grove it means the same but it has to do with arts and crafts.

That's the idea behind Salmagundi Arts and Craft Shop that was newly opened at 7955 Broadway, opposite the Lemon Grove Post Office.

The firm will handle all materials connected with the arts and crafts — "but right now the big thing is macrame," said Bud Hall, a partner in the firm.

The other partner is John Graham, a Lemon Grove property owner. He and his wife Sue, also active in the firm, own the Salmagundi building. She is the daughter of Jack Holt, deceased, who owned property now occupied by Salmagundi and the Purple Turtle, which is adjacent.

Hall said the shop will hold classes in painting, drawing and in other arts and crafts as programs can be developed. Store hours are 10-7:30 daily except Sunday.

desirable. Bollman suggested that consideration be given to smaller juries of perhaps 6 to 8 people and that consideration be given to verdicts which are not completely unanimous.

"Under the present system," Bollman said, "one juror out of 12 can block a proper guilty verdict with the result that the entire case must be tried again.

In another proposal, Bollman said that we must make changes in our sentencing and corrections procedures so that greater emphasis is placed on protecting the public. He said he favored measures such as the Mandatory Sentencing Initiative which will require mandatory jail sentence for people who commit very violent and serious crimes.

"People who commit violent and serious crimes should know ahead of time that they will be dealt with swiftly and surely," Bollman said. "This type of sentencing is necessary to protect the public at large and the victim of crime and also to provide a better measure of protection for Californians.

New England Subject of Photo Exhibit

Grossmont College announces the opening of a photographic exhibition entitled "Notes From New England." On display in the Lewis F. Smith Learning Resource Center (Library) are thirty-four black and white photographs of New England as seen through the eyes of a native son. Such items as a Maine lobster trap, a unique New Hampshire homestead and a Massachusetts town hall, are included. Studies of the varying moods of nature from the brooding silence of new-fallen snow to the ferocity of waves pounding against the shore, are skillfully captured by the camera.

Ernest Halberstadt is an accomplished American photographer and is equally at home in the painter's loft, the graphic arts workshop or the sculptor's studio. He began his artistic career in the thirties and has achieved notable success in painting, photography and sculpture. His works are in many private collections as well as many museums, among them the Metropolitan Museum of Modern Art in New York.

Twenty-five of the photographs in this exhibition were used to illustrate a book of poems Shore Road to Ogunquit by Harold Plotkin and on reviewing the book, the Boston Globe described the photographs as "... of incomparable beauty."

The exhibition, circulated nationally by Dorothy T. Van Arsdale Associates of Clermont, Florida, will remain on view until Friday, October 11. Viewing hours are from 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday; 12:30 to 4:30 p.m., Saturday and 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Newest 'Jack' Opens in Grove

Ken Yarab, a 1959 Helix High school graduate has been named manager of Foodmark's newest outlet—the Lemon Grove Jack-in-the-Box at Broadway and Kempf streets.

It replaced the one which had been operated a block east for the past several years. The new Jack opened Monday this week.

Yarab has been with the food firm 15 years; six of which were in Lemon Grove. He married the former Peggy Taylor, a resident of the Grove. They live in Spring Valley.

Yarab is a member of the Spring Valley Kiwanis club and the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce. He also serves as a Junior Girl Scout leader.

One of the features of the newest Jack is a restroom area, sufficient to accommodate the public. The facilities will be available to all during the time the dining area is open.

The new facility employs 40 persons and provides a full-rounded menu of hamburger, breakfast sandwiches, tacos, steak sandwiches, fish sandwiches and soft drinks.

The chain now has nearly 800 fast-food outlets.

Class on UFO's to Start

Noted anthropologist Margaret Mead writes in the September issue of Redbook: "Yes, there are unidentified flying objects. There are phenomena that, even after the most cautious and painstaking investigations, cannot be explained away. This much, at least, we must accept."

Efforts to account for these unidentified phenomena, from sources as divergent as the U. S. government and psychoanalyst Carl Jung, will be presented in a course to be offered this fall by UCSD Extension.

"UFOs — A Mysterious Reality" is to meet on six Thursday evening starting tomorrow. Instructor Robert Treash, who has studied UFOs for more than 25 years, will offer "a low-key inquiry into the nature and significance of

Governor Urges Californians To Have Children Immunized

"We are facing a crisis of sorts in California," Governor Ronald Reagan said recently, "a crisis in immunization.

"Californians, in one sense, have been too healthy for their own good over the past decade," the Governor said. "Because we haven't had outbreaks of polio and other diseases such as we had in the '40's and '50's, we have become complacent about getting our families immunized.

"As a result, California has dropped to 39th among the 50 states in the percentage of its children immunized against diseases for which there is ready protection.

"With our mobile population, these low immunization levels could eventually lead to epidemics.

"To stop this threat, the State Department of Health, the federal government, private physicians and volunteers are conducting Immunization Action Month in California during September. The main emphasis will be on childhood diseases such as polio, measles, rubella (German measles), diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

"Although we want all Californians to receive proper immunization, we are especially anxious that preschool and school age children are protected.

"I urge all Californians to join Immunization Action," the Governor said, "not only during September but in the years to come. Remember, a little extra effort expended now may prevent years of heartbreak for you and your family.

"Contact your family doctor or a public health clinic to be sure that your family is fully protected. You will be helping yourself and all Californians," concluded the Governor.

University Hospital Needs R.N.'s for Mother-Infant Care

A new project is being conducted at University Hospital for registered nurses interested in volunteering time. American Red Cross volunteer Chairman of Nursing, Mrs. Carl Sirovica, announced the need for nurses to assist at the hospital in a mother-infant program headed by Dr. Charlotte White.

Nurses would assist in the reading and coding of records, phoning, interviewing, and in clinical research.

CHP Tells of Concentrated Enforcement

What probably is an all-time record for traffic enforcement in a rural area occurred during a recent two-day period on a remote 50-mile stretch of Interstate 5 in the vicinity of Coalinga when 301 drivers received citations from the California Highway Patrol.

Normally only two of the CHP's black and white units are assigned to that area but during the test period 10 patrol cars and one aircraft covered the beat.

The aircraft was used to spot speeders and was successful on 71 occasions. When an offender was located the CHP pilot radioed the nearest patrol car which overtook and stopped the suspect vehicle. The small aircraft flew only during daylight and was in the air for 15 hours.

Common violations other than speeding were reckless driving, illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages and driving while under the influence of alcohol.

CHP Deputy Commissioner Dan Lanza described the intent of the two-day effort as "an attempt to determine whether it is worthwhile to sometimes concentrate unusual number of traffic officers and equipment in one sparsely populated area."

Although the results have not been completely evaluated, Lanza said preliminary reports are positive and indicate the CHP should give full consideration to conducting similar activities in other rural areas.

California Reaps Record $28.7 Million

SAN FRANCISCO... Nearly 29 million dollars will be California's share of a record amount of receipts collected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service from the many uses of National Forest lands. California's share — second highest of all States at $28.7 million — will be distributed to 39 counties in the State.

By law, the money must be used for public roads and schools. Receipts are from such public uses of National Forest lands as grazing, recreation, minerals, timber sales, winter sports sites, and power sites.

States receive 25 percent of National Forest receipts. Nationwide the Forest Service collected a record $470 million, and distributed almost $117 million of this to 39 states and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Oregon received the largest share at $41 million.

Speaking, Loving Courses Listed At UC Extension

The skill of speaking effectively in public will be taught in a nine-week UCSD Extension course beginning Wednesday morning.

Meeting in the classroom of the Extension Building on the University's Matthews Campus from 9 a.m. until noon, the course will provide experience in a wide variety of speaking situations. Coordinator Sherrill Caplan, and guest speakers Sanford I. Berman and George McGreggor, will cover basic areas, including: a working knowledge of speaking techniques, methods of organization, listening awareness, and manuscript interpretation.

Berman, who is known to the public as showman Michael Dean, holds a doctoral degree in general semantics. "Creative Aggression in the Service of Realistic Love (How to Fight Fair in Intimate Relationships)" is the title of a short course on relationships and lifestyles to be offered by UCSD Extension this fall.

Led by noted psychologist George R. Bach, "Creative Aggression" will demonstrate the concept that fighting constructively (rather than destructively) can help maintain close, loving relationships. Two films will be featured: "Lovers' Dirty Tricks" and "Affection-Producing Fight Games". A "fair fight" will be dramatized.

His course is to meet Saturday (9 a.m. to 4 p.m.) and Sunday (10 a.m. to 1 p.m.) on two consecutive weekends, October 19-20 and 26-27. Location is the International Center Lounge on the Matthews Campus.

Visitors Welcomed Under Program

Visitors from foreign countries will be introduced to local hosts in a program currently being developed by the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau. The Bureau hopes to expand the program to make all foreign visitors feel welcome in San Diego.

Still in the planning stages, the program will establish a bank of names of local residents—individuals or families—who would like to host a foreign visitor for a day by perhaps showing him San Diego sights and answering questions he might have. The host need not speak a foreign language, but it would be desirable.

Persons interested in participating should write or phone the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau, 1200 Third Ave., Suite 224, San Diego, Calif. 92101, (714) 232-3101.

School Swap Meet Benefits Student Fund

As part of a student welfare fund-raising campaign, Bancroft Elementary School will hold a Swap Meet on Saturday, Oct. 5.

The event will be staged at the school's lower playground, 8805 Tyler st., in Spring Valley. Sellers will be asked a one dollar fee and may begin setting up their displays at 7 a.m. The general public will be admitted between 8 a.m. and noon. Refreshments will be available.

General admission prices will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Film to Show Yosemite Peak

As two men scale the seemingly impossible heights of Sentinel Rock in Yosemite National Park, the technical arts as well as the philosophical considerations are explained, as they go. The breathtaking film of "Sentinel: The West Face" won first prize at the Trento Festival of Mountain Films and will be shown Saturday and Sunday at the Museum of Natural History free of charge.

Radio-Recorder Stolen

During her absence one day last week, a burglar pried open the rear window of the home of Mrs. Esther Wagness at 10002 San Juan, Spring Valley, and took away a Master-sound radio-cassette recorder worth $300.

Her home was ransacked thoroughly, police reported, but other items of equal value were not taken.

2.	15,000 Sq. Ft.	(Phase II) Remove Traffic Striping and Marking.

The foregoing quantities are approximate only, being given as a basis for the comparison of bids, and the Board of Supervisors does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual amount of work will correspond therewith, but reserves the right to increase or decrease the amount of any class or portion of the work, as may be deemed necessary or expedient by the said Board of Supervisors.

The attention of Bidders is directed to the section of the Contract Documents which outlines Affirmative Action Requirements for equal employment opportunity. At the time of submission of the Bid, each Bidder must furnish to the County his completed and signed "Bidder's Certification." Prior to the award of any subcontract of $10,000 or over, the contractor must likewise obtain and furnish to the County a "Subcontractor's Certification" from each such prospective subcontractor.

In accordance with Section 1770 of the California Labor Code, the Board of Supervisors has determined the prevailing basic rate of per diem wages, inclusive of fringe benefits, a copy of which may be seen in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors (Document No. 4787171).

The said Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or

The Contract Documents, which includes Plans and Specifications, may be examined at the County Engineer Department, Building 2, Room 184, 5555 Overland Avenue, San Diego, California, 92123. A copy of the Contract Documents may be obtained at said Office upon payment of $8.00 plus tax. If payment is made by check, it should be made payable to the "County of San Diego". NO REFUND WILL BE MADE.

A copy of the publication "Equipment Rental Rates" of March 1974 may be obtained at said Office upon request.

The attention of bidders is particularly directed to the provisions of Sections 8-1.01 and 8-1.02 of the Specifications regarding subcontracting and assignment of the contract, respectively.

Bidders must satisfy themselves by personal examination of the location of the proposed work and by such other means as they may prefer as to the actual conditions and requirements of the work, and shall not at any time after submission of the bid or proposal, dispute, complain, or assert that there was any misunderstanding in regard to the nature or amount of work to be done.

All proposals or bids offered shall be on the forms of proposals and bonds as prepared by the County of San Diego and shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, payable to the order of the County of San Diego, or a bond, as is required by law, for an amount not less than ten (10%) percent of the aggregate of the proposal.

Californians quaffed distilled spirits, beer and wine in record amounts during the past fiscal year, pouring alcoholic beverage revenue dollars into the State coffers, according to State Board of Equalization Member John W. Lynch.

Beer consumption led the way in 1973-74 with a 6.4 percent increase over 1972-73 figures. Per capita consumption rose to 20.7 gallons, a substantial gain over the 1972-73 per capita figure of 19.6 gallons. A possible contributing factor, according to Board analysts, was that the selling price of beer has not increased as significantly as wine, a competing beverage. A total of $16,755,444 in revenue was paid on 118,886,589 gallons of beer.
